PlayBingo!

If your company has been searching for the perfect cause-related marketing opportunity in Austin, look no further! The Friends of Christopher Guild proudly presents the 9th annual PlayBingo Ladies Luncheon, a unique Austin event bringing affluent ladies together for a common cause –child abuse– and a common love –bingo. Through the years, PlayBingo has grown to include 700 ladies who rally their friends and bring their pocketbooks for a midafternoon rendezvous of tasty drinks, fabulous auction items, and of course- BINGO!

Center for Child Protection

The Center for Child Protection, a nationally accredited children's advocacy center, provides help, hope, and healing to children who are victims of sexual assault, severe physical injury, or who are witnesses to violent crime. In Travis County, the Center is the "first stop" in the child abuse investigation process, offering a pioneering approach in which investigating agencies collaborate to place a child's best interests first. All services, both investigative and therapeutic, are offered to children and their protective caregivers free of charge.

Friends of Christopher Guild

The Friends of Christopher Guild was born out of our community's despair, frustration, and outrage over the death of two-year-old Christopher Wohlers in 1990. Formed by concerned women and mothers, the Friends of Christopher Guild is committed to sustaining and expanding the safety net for abused children in Travis County through support of the Center for Child Protection. Guild members volunteer tirelessly on behalf of Austin's children.
